Q. What if an owner wants his or her Attorney-in-Fact (Power of Attorney) to complete the claim form on their behalf?

- A. The Power of Attorney document must be submitted with the claim form and certified death certificate. When the claim form is completed by the Attorney-in-Fact, the signature should include their proper title reflecting the fiduciary relationship. All information on the claim form should be completed on behalf of the beneficiary.

Q. What is an accelerated benefit?

- A. An accelerated death benefit is all or a portion of the policy's death benefit that is paid in advance when (a) the Insured has been certified by a Licensed Health Care Practitioner as being Chronically Ill or (b) the Insured has been certified by a Licensed Health Care Practitioner as Terminally Ill AND all of the conditions of eligibility for benefit payments have been satisfied.

Q. Will receipt of accelerated benefit payments affect government benefits or entitlements?

- A. Receipt of an accelerated death benefit payment may be taxable and assistance should be sought from your personal tax adviser. In addition, accelerated death benefit payments may adversely affect your eligibility for Medicaid and other government benefits or entitlements.

Q. Will receipt of accelerated payments affect my death benefit?

- A. The policy death benefit, and/or the death benefit provided by an applicable additional insured benefit rider, will be reduced proportionately by the percentage selected. Other policy values, such as any accumulation values, cash values and any outstanding loan, will be reduced proportionately by the percentage selected.

Q. Will receipt of accelerated payments be taxable?

- A. Although payments made under the Rider generally are intended to qualify for favorable tax treatment under section 101(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, a payment under the Rider may be taxable. The recipient of a payment should consult his or her tax advisor and attorney to assess any tax impact of this benefit on his or her personal situation before requesting an accelerated payment. We made no representations about the tax impact of the benefit.
